Nava

Hi everyone,
I'm Jasmine Navarro, founder of Nava.

I specialise in life coaching, coaching students through school and university.

SCHOOL: READY TO REACH YOUR FULL POTENTIAL?

When I was a student, I didn't know how important it was to express my true feelings. And I had no idea how not sharing them with others would impact my decision-making regarding my academic & personal life.

At university age, choosing my career path was a challenge. I was facing unexpected personal issues and not equipped to make a life decision so big.

Life coaching can help. If you're a parent of a student or a student yourself, coaching with Nava can be a preventative tool, and help give you the techniques, clarity, and confidence to reach your full potential.

The first step is focusing on yourself. And as your certified professional life coach, I'm here to help every step of the way. I accept you as you are, and I'm sincerely looking forward to seeing who you become.

Why try it? Because you have grit, even if you don't know it yet.

Testimonials

Sessions

Over the past months, I had the chance to work with Jasmine. Jasmine helped me to gain more clarity to move forward. It made me realize many things, and I took action on it. What makes Jasmine stand apart in her industry, is her authenticity, sense of humor and holistic approach. Every session with Jasmine was full of value and it was fun. As a person, but also professionally, Jasmine is enormously passionate about what she is doing and she also exactly knows what she is doing. I would recommend Jasmine to anyone, who needs more clarity in life.
